

DALLAS PERFORM FIRST NORTH AMERICAN CONCERTS AT CANADIAN MUSIC WEEK

dallas, the alternative/indie music group from Estonia, has been invited by Canadian Music Week 1999 to perform in Toronto in early March. This will be the group's debut in North America.

This visit follows hot on the heels of the release of dallas' self-titled debut CD in mid-January. The album has been extremely well received and this week is in position # 26 in Chart magazine's Top 50 campus airplay chart [18 Feb 99]. The Toronto Star hailed the CD as "the best European pop album to land on these shores since The Delgados...." [23 Jan 99]. And Exclaim! said: ".....just be thankful for the gem of catchy pop." [Feb 99].

dallas will be performing:

THURSDAY 4 MARCH @ THE RIVOLI, 334 QUEEN STREET WEST, TORONTO [416 596 1908]

"The Boundless Showcase" with six other groups: An Acoustic Sin, Home Crew, Insurgent, Juice, Kittie & Scratching Post dallas onstage @ 1am

admission with Canadian Music Week Festival wristband - $30

info: Boundless 416 977 8477

FRIDAY 5 MARCH @ EL MOCAMBO, 464 SPADINA AVENUE, TORONTO [416 968 2001] dallas onstage @ 9pm [upstairs]

admission with Canadian Music Week Festival wristband - $30

SUNDAY 7 MARCH @ THE REVERB, 651 QUEEN STREET WEST, TORONTO [416 504 6699]

early evening showcase presented by Small World Music Productions doors open 7pm, dallas onstage @ 8pm sharp!

admission $7 on door ALL AGES dallas will be in Toronto between 1 and 8 March. Anyone interested in interviewing the group, or finding out more about the Baltic music scene, or swapping Estonian hockey stories should call Boundless or High Park Records.