dallas singer Kristi was one of the featured artists in mp3.com's The Women of mp3.com section earlier this month. Check out the information and new photos. dallas has been steadily rising up the charts at mp3.com as more people discover the group's great music. dallas have their very own page at mp3.com where you can download their songs in mp3 format for free. Lots of thanks to the group's many fans at mp3.com.

dallas came tenth in the finals of the garageband.com contest to find the best new band on the planet. dallas' song "Let's Split" reached number 3 at one point during the voting by internet reviewers. Thanks to everyone who supported the band in this amazing competition.

Maybe you saw the March 2000 issue of The Face magazine. Pages 212 to 214 have an article about the music scene in Estonia. "Jangly guitar popsters dallas, who play beautiful, haunting, easy-listening inspired indie," says The Face. And there's a colour photo of dallas on page 214. Could Estonia be the "next big thing" in music?

For a look at more media coverage of dallas, check their press cuttings and radio pages. In its year-end roundup, The Toronto Star cites dallas' debut CD first on its list of the ten best CD releases of 1999. "Charmingly innocent-yet-ironic pop" and "a music junkie's dream," says The Star. dallas' concerts at Canadian Music Week are also listed in The Toronto Star's top ten gigs of last year. "This Estonian outfit is so damn cool I went to see it three times in four days," says Star critic Ben Rayner world's biggest [dallas fan].

There's a dallas track on the free CD with the latest issue of Detroit magazine MassTransfer which says of dallas' debut: "The songs jump right out at you and grab your attention, each one an interesting journey from beginning to end."

You can buy the dallas CD by worldwide mail order from Amazon.com, or check our mail-order list for other suppliers. Amazon.com says: ".....dallas proves to be a contender for one of the best underground albums released in 1999."

Lucius

CD INFO PRESS CUTTINGS BIOGRAPHY DISCOGRAPHY MAIL ORDER AUDIO SAMPLES WWW LINKS

A promo-only CD single of two Lucius songs, Little Barefeet and Smell Of Spring, is being distributed to radio and the press right now. These songs will be included in the group's debut album, to be released later in the year. Lucius are five friends who write and perform their own songs using acoustic instruments (but this sure ain't folk music!). The remarkable voice of singer Karina Gretere is the highlight of this group's original sound.

The reaction to Lucius has been great. The record is already #1 in the Jam! Music alternate top 10 anti-hit list, where it is described as "haunting." Thanks to all the radio stations that have been playing Lucius: including KSJS San Jose (where it holds chart position # 29); Music Monster Radio (where it is # 19); Discjockey.com; Spinner.com; Soundclick Radio; and World Music Radio. To hear the music for yourself, check out our audio samples page.

Estonian group Una Bomba played a New Year's Eve concert at the Big Fun event in the Von Krahl theatre in Tallinn, Estonia. The group's debut CD will be released early this year. What do they sound like? Uuummm, it's a bit difficult to describe on paper [well, on web paper, to be more accurate]. Think of The Fall, think of northern soul, think of trash, think of England, think of..... You'll hear for yourself soon when the CD is released.
